

Recruiting With Ex military Ltd (www.4exmilitary.com)

Ex military Ltd is an industry leader in ex military recruitment, we are dedicated to providing only the highest standards of service to our clients and members.

Contracting

Ex military Ltd has an extensive resource of skilled individuals enabling us to provide your organisation with extremely competent and experience Engineers, Project Managers and consultants.

For those extensive ranges of roles and specialist project resources, that industry requires, we at Ex military are ideally suited to provide manpower that reflects the range and scope of skills represented within our membership of 13,000 ex military candidates. If a client requires a single professional to bring a specific skill to a project or conversely a substantial workforce, we are equally up to either task.

An additional specific area we have proved to be invaluable in is the resource of Security Cleared individuals, as this can complicate a simple installation project creating a recruitment hurdle 4exmilitary can easily overcome.

A consultant would be dedicated to your particular requirement and would remain as your point of contact for any aspects of the project. This provides a reassuring sense of continuity between the Client the Agent and the Contractor resulting in an effective and seamless process of administration.

Why ex military Candidates

We are proud to say we can successfully operate in almost any industry, this is made possible by the extensive range of skills, job types and trades such as engineers, technicians, trainers, administrators, IT managers, drivers, chefs, nurses, pilots, operations managers, facilities managers, project managers and communications experts within the British Forces.

Today's Armed Forces use innovative technology to its very limits. However, technical abilities are not the only attributes that Service Leavers have to offer employers. With integrity, self discipline and a genuine work ethic it is plain to see why the ex military community is valued so highly by employers.

With average of 23,000 highly trained and experienced individuals leaving the forces each year this resource will only continue to grow.

Why Ex military Ltd

With over 12 years of experience in this very specialised industry the 4ex Team have built a reputation that is second to none. An essential in depth knowledge of the structure and makeup of the British Forces enables us to provide you with the very best candidates for your organisation.

Maintaining this high standard of service is only made possible by the popularity, reach and appeal we have with all areas of the ex military community which in turn enables us to provide our clients with the best possible selection of candidates.
